Under the High Patronage of the President of the French Senate
Mr Gérard LARCHER

PROGRAM

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE: INTERPARLIAMENTARY COOPERATION AS A MEANS FOR A COMMON APPROACH

Monday, September 29, 2025
Clemenceau Room

Artificial Intelligence: Interparliamentary cooperation as a means for a common approach

Monday September 29- Room Clemenceau

Luxembourg Palace - 15 ter on Vaugirard street 75006 PARIS

The event will be filmed and open to the press

8h30-09h00 Arrival of participants and welcome coffee (Room René Coty)

OPENING REMARKS

09h15

Keynote of the President of the Senate, Gérard Larcher

Loïc Hervé, Vice-President of the Senate in charge of Interparliamentary Cooperation and Interparliamentary Friendship Groups

Michael McNamara, Co-President of the European Parliament Working Group on the Implementation and Enforcement of the European Artificial Intelligence Act

SESSION I

09h45 – 10h50

Advancing a common agenda and strengthening governance in an uncertain geopolitical context

Moderating by Stéphane Piednoir, President of the Parliamentary Office for the Evaluation of Scientific and Technological Choices

Introduction: Michael McNamara, Co-President of the European Parliament Working Group on the Implementation and Enforcement of the European Artificial Intelligence Act

Miapetra Kumpula-Natri, Vice-President of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe, member of the Finnish Parliament

Audrey Plonk, Deputy Director of the Directorate for Science, Technology, and Innovation at OECD

10h50 Break

SESSION II

11h20 – 11h50

Harnessing Artificial Intelligence for Security

Moderating by Christine Lavarde, President of the Senate Foresight Delegation

Introduction : Étienne Grass, Member of the National Council for Artificial Intelligence and Digital Technology and Global Chief AI Officer at Capgemini Invent

Henrik Bliddal, Deputy Secretary general of the NATO Parliamentary Assembly

Gaëtan Poncelin de Raucourt, Deputy Director of the Strategy Department of the National Cybersecurity Agency (ANSSI)

Mariarosaria Taddeo, Professor of Digital Ethics and Defense Technologies at Oxford University

CLOSING REMARKS

12h15 Round table closing

Christine Lavarde, President of the Senate Foresight Delegation

Stéphane Piednoir, President of the Parliamentary Office for the Evaluation of Scientific and Technological Choices

12h30 Luncheon cocktail

Senate – Luxembourg Palace
15 ter on Vaugirard street – 75006 Paris